

Indiana University-Purdue University Fort Wayne
Advising and Registration Day/New Student Orientation
Goals and Outcomes
Fall 2017
Kim Myers, M.A.

A&R Goals:

- 1) Students will complete the CIRP
- 2) Students will learn about University policies
- 3) Students will learn about support resources
- 4) Students will gain a better understanding of the financial aspects of college
- 5) Students will gain a better understanding of academic regulations and expectations
- 6) Students will meet with their academic department and register for classes
- 7) Students will connect with an upperclassman peer leader

A&R Outcomes:

- 1) Students will complete the CIRP
- 2) Students will correctly identify three academic policies
- 3) Students will correctly identify three student support offices
- 4) Students will have a general understanding of FERPA
- 5) Students will be able to locate the name and email address for their academic advisor
- 6) Students will understand the 100% refund period
- 7) Students will identify the purpose of myBLUEprint
- 8) Students will understand the course withdrawal process
- 9) Students will identify the importance of the Bulletin
- 10) Students will be able to differentiate between Financial Aid and the Bursar's Office
- 11) Students will understand the role of academic advising
- 12) Students will understand how to maintain degree progress
- 13) Students will register for classes

NSO Goals:

- 1) Students will learn about high school to college transition issues
- 2) Students will develop interpersonal connections
- 3) Students will learn about campus resources and how they may help them reach their academic goals
- 4) Students will engage in social activities that facilitate their transition to the University
- 5) Students will interact with departmental resources
- 6) Students will be exposed to a sampling of clubs and organizations

NSO Outcomes:

- 1) Students will identify 3 key differences between high school and college level expectations
- 2) Students will correctly identify how many hours per week they should spend studying in college
- 3) Students will be able to list two campus resources that can assist them in their academic goals
- 4) Students will be able to list two campus resources that can assist them in their social development
- 5) Students will correctly identify myBLUEprint, Blackboard, and myIPFW
- 6) Students will identify two ways they can be successful in college